

Another Letter from America

Five years on with the Iraq disaster - where the only good thing was the removal of the hideous Saddam Hussein - and what have we got? A new bunch of euphemisms to cover up the total mess made in the Middle East, that Bush and his five crazed old buddies decided would be a fun way to go.

Shock and Awe	Let's invade and bomb the hell out of a sovereign state
Global War on Terrorism	Let's invade and bomb the hell out of a sovereign state
Regime change	Let's invade and bomb the hell out of a sovereign state
Surge	The above wasn't enough so let's do some more bombing
A slight uptick in violence	The result of the above
Collateral damage	The result of the above for civilians
Contractors	Mercenaries.
Professional interrogation techniques	Torture
Waterboarding	Interrupted deliberate drowning
'A short, sharp war.'	Blair's verbal contribution
'History begins today'	Anybody else want bombing?

Now, the cost of this war to the American people is approximately $9,200 per household. But help is coming:

"...the United States Congress passed and President George W. Bush signed into law the Economic Stimulus Act of 2008, which provides for economic stimulus payments to be made to over 130 million American households....."

$300 per person. Every little helps when you're making your contribution to the war effort.
